

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Twenty-Five Years After Chernobyl

April 2011

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Chernobyl

April 26, 1986
Pripyat, Ukraine

400 times more radioactive material than the
Hiroshima atomic bomb was released

No immediate evacuation was ordered – didn't acknowledge until two days later!

Affected Ukraine, Belarus, Russia, Europe

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Chernobyl

Environmental Issues

STEM

Geography

Agriculture

Medicine

"Radioactive Boars Rampaging Through Germany"

August 3, 2010

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Chernobyl

Politics

Policy

Foreign Relations

Cold War

Nonprofit Organizations / International Charities

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Chernobyl

Literature ~ Narrative Accounts

Journalism

Rogue Tourism

Arts

Language

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Chernobyl

- *PPT Presentations
- *Films
- *Ukrainian Speakers
- *K12 Workshop
- *On campus event
- *Videoconference with
Ukrainian Classroom

Center for
Slavic and
East European
Studies at OSU

Chernobyl

What happened 25 years ago at Chernobyl?

Why is Chernobyl important today?

What can we learn from this tragedy?

Photos by R. Payne-Holmes, Wikipedia and Fox.